

Hooper Turner. New York is All Right

frosch&portmann is pleased to announce New York is All Right, New York based Hooper Turner's third solo exhibition with the gallery.

New York is All Right is about the forms of this great city. New York's alright. It's alright because the City is a living, messy abstraction. But nothing is really abstract in New York. Here are some paintings and drawings and collages, pictures of my wife's vagina, our dog's head, some Archie comics, anti-depressants, those lovely Art Deco foyers, and the Queensborough Bridge. So look closely at New York and always feel connected and alive as it slowly, powerfully transforms you.

—Hooper Turner, 2015

Born in Charlotte, NC, Hooper Turner lives and works in New York. He received his B.F.A. from the University of North Carolina at Asheville and his M.F.A. from the University of Georgia at Athens.

May 28 - July 5, 2015 / Wednesday – Sunday, 12 - 6